

ADVERTISEMENT

Los Angeles Times
Local / L.A. Now

2 officers, man injured after Taser used in movie theater disturbance

Two officer, man injured after officer uses Taser in North Hollywood movie theater disturbance

By RUBEN VIVES

MARCH 24, 2014, 11:33 AM

A pair of Los Angeles police officers and a man were hospitalized after an incident at a North Hollywood movie theater.

Officers responded to a disturbance call about 9:40 p.m. Sunday at the Laemmle Theater on Lankershim Boulevard, KTLA-TV Channel 5 reported.

The officers attempted to speak to a man standing outside, but he ignored them, police said. At one point, the officers and the man were involved in a struggle, the station reported.

It wasn't immediately known what led to the struggle. The man allegedly bit one of the officers on the hand. The officer then used a Taser on the man, but it also struck the other officer.

All three were taken to hospitals for treatment. The officers were later released. The man remained hospitalized and his condition was unknown.

ALSO:

LAPD in mourning after 3 officers killed in 2 months

Donald Sterling will fight to keep Clippers, Garcetti predicts

Red Cross assisting homeless residents displaced after shelter fire

ruben.vives@latimes.com

Twitter: @latvives

Copyright © 2014, Los Angeles Times

ADVERTISEMENT

ADVERTISEMENT

Comments

In other words police used excessive force for "contempt of cop." Got their hiney's kicked and called for back-up. Another lawsuit coming against LAPD.

WHOPHANTOM
AT 2:26 PM MARCH 24, 2014

ADD A COMMENT >
SEE ALL COMMENTS >

50,000 BONUS POINTS— THAT'S WORTH $625 IN TRAVEL REWARDS

5X POINTS IN SELECT CATEGORIES

Learn More

NO FOREIGN TRANSACTION FEES

ADVERTISEMENT

