SAN DIEGO — A suspected shoplifter who threatened Walmart security guards with a Taser was arrested Saturday, San Diego police said.

The man was confronted outside the store on College Avenue and College Grove Drive in Oak Park about 12:30 p.m., police said. The security guards backed off when he pulled out a Taser and threatened them, police said.

The suspect got away with stolen shoes, socks and a baseball glove but was arrested a short time later.
