

Disqualified car thief had Taser and knuckle dusters

SAM SHERWOOD

Last updated 19:52, March 14 2016

A Taser and some knuckle dusters were discovered when a man was pulled over in a stolen car.

Senior Sergeant Chris Scott said the 20-year-old disqualified driver failed to stop for police who recognised the stolen car on Ferry Rd, Christchurch, about 12.50pm on Monday.

Scott said there was a "brief pursuit" before the car was stopped. Police found a Taser and some knuckle dusters in the car.

The man was charged with unlawfully taking a motor vehicle, failing to stop for police, dangerous driving, driving while disqualified, unlawful possession of a Taser and possession of an offensive weapon.

He was held in custody and is due to appear in the Christchurch District Court on Tuesday.
