NORWALK — Two people were arrested after police say they were found with a stun gun and drugs.

Police said a cruiser drove into an East Avenue parking lot about 9 p.m. and that the car the two people were in sped off.

Police stopped the car driven by 22-year-old Krystle George after, they said, she failed to stop at a stop sign.

Police reported a heavy odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle and said that George and her passenger, 24-year-old Kirk Brown, denied having drugs in the car.

Police said that Brown, of 16 Hamilton Ave., had 10 hallucinogenic mushrooms and a small amount of marijuana. He was as charged with possession of drug paraphernalia, possession of less than one half ounce of marijuana, and possession of hallucinogens.

Police said that a jar of marijuana was recovered from the trunk of George's car along with an electronic defense weapon — a Taser-like device — was found in her purse.

George, of 261 Ely Ave., Norwalk, was charged with use and possession of drug paraphernalia, weapons in a motor vehicle, possession of less than one half ounce of marijuana and failure to obey stop sign.

She was issued a $1,000 bond and given a court date of July 5.

Brown was issued a $2,500 bond and given a court date of July 5.
