Police arrested four people after seizing a gun, Taser, drugs and cash following two raids in Gatineau on Thursday.

After a three-month investigation launched by public complaints, officers raided a Renaud St. home and a Claricy St. home at about 6:30 p.m.

The haul seized included: a .38-calibre handgun, a stun gun, a retractable baton, 1,125 grams of marijuana, 23 grams of hashish, nine grams of methamphetamine and $4,400 in cash.

Three men and a 16-year-old girl were arrested.

Maxime Pétrin-Lafrenière, 18, faces three charges, including drug trafficking and drug possession.

Patrick Lesage 19, faces six charges, including possession of a prohibited weapon and storing a firearm in a negligent manner.

Charges for the third man and the girl were not released Friday.
