A 22-year-old Greenwich man is facing charges after getting into a fight with party-goers at an apartment above his and threatening them with a knife, Taser and golf club, according to police.

Police were called to the complex at 307 Hamilton Avenue in Greenwich around midnight Saturday after a fight broke out. Police said 22-year-old Waiyat Hamdani, who lives in a first-floor apartment there, began arguing with the tenants upstairs over noise from a party they were hosting.

During the fight, Hamdani broke a window in the second-floor apartment and threatened party guests with a knife, a taser and a golf club, according to police.

He was arrested and charged with third-degree criminal mischief, disorderly conduct and second-degree threatening.

Hamdani was released after posting $200 bond and is due in court Sept. 29.
