Two women attacked a worker at a group home in College Hill on Monday, shot her with a Taser twice and stole her wallet, police said.

Ilesha Johnson, 19, and Makita Ramsey, 18, were arrested Monday after they attacked Briggitte Kemp in the 8000 block of Daly Road, police said.

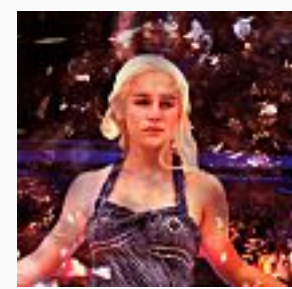

Johnson lives in the home and had two warrants for theft and aggravated menacing after being accused of stealing three pillows and threatening to kill Kemp earlier Monday, according to court documents

Johnson and Ramsey went to the group home later that day and attacked Kemp, police said. Ramsey is accused of stealing Kemp's wallet and shooting her with a Taser twice, police said. Johnson is accused of punching Kemp.

Ramsey is accused of theft and assault. Johnson is accused of theft, aggravated menacing, and assault.

They are both scheduled to appear in court Tuesday.
