ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (KRQE) – A man accused of robbing nearly a dozen people is behind bars.

Over the span of a week and a half, police say Adonis Encinias held up businesses all across the city armed with a taser.

According to a criminal complaint Encinias targeted gas stations, grocery stores, restaurants and pharmacies with most of the crimes caught on surveillance video.

Police finally arrested him and alleged getaway driver Takayo Bryant after another robbery at a Burger King near Gibson and I-25 on Friday.

Investigators say Encinias told them he was being forced to commit those robberies by Bryant.

Both men are booked on $75,000 bonds.
